ABSTRACT

The petitioners complain that it is to their great disadvantage that the village, Devasamudra, was made a Municipality.

That the ryots who are entitled to exemption of Kolatara house-tax as agriculturists have been heavily charged with the house-tax,

That the tax on the

MOOPP

tradesmen is rendered V oppressive,

that about 30 houses have been ordered to be demolished for extension of roads

that the Saudi (Fair) has been ordered to be held in a place where it is most difficult to get water or shelter, and that octroy duty is imposed upon all articles of food, which heavily presses on the poor public

Having thus complained the petrs. pray for the abolition of the Municipality in that village.

Hussain.
